Why should I care?

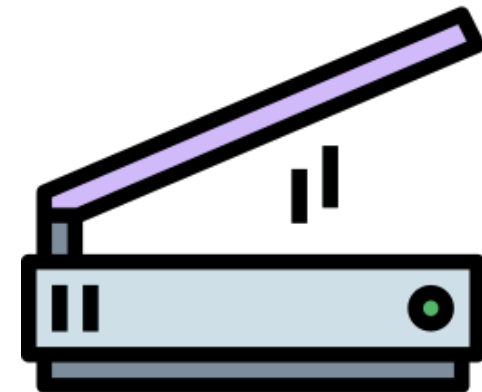

Special rules for Libraries ...

- Make a copy on behalf of a patron, for research or study
- Copy to supply to another library
- Replace lost, damaged, or stolen items
- Make a backup/ preservation copy
- Copy for administrative purposes/ care of the collection
- Use book covers for promotional purposes

Educational institutions:

- Copy chapters and articles for teaching
- Use images for teaching
- Record tv and radio broadcasts

Answering copyright questions

Without saying 'no'

Can I photocopy my friend's textbook because I cannot afford to buy it?

- Copy 1 chapter
- Borrow it or place a request
- Try looking for a second hand one

There's a DVD another library has for "in library use only". Can you make a copy of theirs?

- Check Libraries Australia
- InterLibrary Loan
- Plan B: Purchase

Can you scan a page of this poster book? I need to know which poster is on page 157.

- Transcribe the information
- Search for a copy online to link to
- Make sure the site is legitimate

To summarise...

- Patrons can copy some stuff for personal use
- Libraries have special copying rules
- Look for alternatives to making a copy
- InterLibrary Loans are your friend and...

Copyright isn't just for copyright nerds!
